International Afghanistan Student Conference 2011

Bonn, Germany

When diplomats and politicians gather in Bonn to discuss the future of Afghanistan in December, 60 students and young professionals from ISAF countries, Afghanistan and Pakistan will have a chance to do the same – just a few meters away. Based on first-hand information from and discussions with conference participants and independent experts, you will work on your own solutions on the many challenges facing Afghanistan today.

To take part in this exciting project and make your voice heard, please submit your application not later than July 24, 2011. Please note that full board and lodging will be provided and you can be supported by a limited allowance. For further information, visit www.asc-bonn.org
